The Westcoast Boys Club Network (BCN) is a registered charitable organization tackling one of contemporary Canada's most mis-understood, mis-managed and under-funded social issues - that of mentor-less, mis-guided young men (sons, brothers, caregivers), floating aimlessly in a sea of more publicized, well-funded social issues. High-potential Canadian boys and young adults who, through mere circumstance are losing their innocence, happiness and basic human potential to hopelessness, drugs, even crime and the streets. Francesco Aquilini is a founding patron of BCN and creator of their highly successful Lessons from the Locker Room series. www.boysclubnetwork.com
